Summary of Qualifications and reservation by the Statutory Auditor

Sr. No	Financial Year	Qualification, reservation or adverse remark or disclaimer made by the Auditor	Comments and Explanation by the Board.
1.	2022 – 2023	Auditor draw their attention to Note No. 40 to the standalone financial statements which describes the instance of cyber fraud through a foreign vendor's employee email account allegedly having been accessed by the perpetrator and the Company resulting in making a payment of Rs. 142,316,178 (1,951,428 USD) to a bank account in Texas, USA, which the vendor has denied to be belonging to them. The Company has taken various steps to investigate into the matter including appointment of an independent investigation agency to provide findings, and filing of complaints with the Pune Cyber cell, the United States Secret Service and Federal Bureau of Investigation, (FBI) for investigation into the matter. Foreign Vendor has filed arbitration with Shanghai International Arbitration Center (SHIAC), after long hearings from both sides SHIAC has reserved its order which is awaited. Pending outcome of the investigations, we are unable to comment on the impact of the matter on the standalone financial statements of the Company and any liability that may devolve upon the Company.	1. Based on the forensic auditors appointed by the management and assessment performed by the management, it was concluded that the Perpetrator has access to the vendor's employee email's account and had sent an email requesting for change the bank account. Hence, management believes that there was an instance of cyber fraud on vendor and not foresee any liability arising on the company in respect of the said matter. However, foreign vendor has filed arbitration with Shanghai International Arbitration Centre (SHIAC) the matter is sub-judice with the SHIAC.
